

Come see the new toll roads on Sunday.

The Central Texas Turnpike Project Sneak Preview

You're invited to a special close-up look at the Austin area's first new toll roads and a chance to pick up your free TxTag.

When: October 22nd, 7:30 am – 2 pm

What: Live music and activities for the whole family, including a 1-mile fun run, a 10-mile timed run benefiting the Girl Scouts/Lone Star Council, plus a 50K noncompetitive bike ride and shorter distance rides for children and riders at all levels.

Where: The toll plaza on new Loop 1 toll road, north of Parmer Lane Directions and information on free parking will be available soon at www.centraltexasturnpike.org.

Schedule of Activities:

7:30 am Start of Girl Scouts 10-mile timed run on the new Loop 1 and SH 45N toll roads

8:00 am Start of Girl Scouts 1-mile fun run and opening of kids' activities area featuring a rock wall, face painting, moonwalks and more

10:30 am – 2:00 pm
Live music and family activities

11:00 am Start of TxTag Bike Tour on Loop 1, SH 45N and SH 130, including a 50K ride plus 10-mile and 1-mile rides for children and riders of all levels

Take advantage of your chance to bike, run or walk on the new Austin area toll roads before they officially open on November 1!

Click here to register for the 10-mile or 1-mile run \(http://www.girlscouts10miler.com\)

Click here to register for the 50K TxTag Tour or other bike rides \(www.runtex.com\)

To find out more about TxTag, the fastest and most convenient way to pay tolls all over Texas, visit www.TxTag.org.

